What did the instructor do that helped you learn?

Comments

The instructor broke down the topics into manageable reading assignments, lectures, quizzes, and discussion posts.

The discussion boards were a huge help, he responded to us individually and gave us constructive criticism.

He provided me with interesting discussion topics to help me apply the knowledge being presented.

What aspects of this course helped you learn?

Comments

This course, in particular, facilitated learning by setting assignment due dates at regular intervals, but making all course materials available (except for the midterm and final exams) so that the student could progress at a pace that best suited their schedule.

The lecture videos, quizzes, and discussion boards.

He provided outside materials such as the textbook and videos to help increase the understanding of the material. He also made his quizzes straightforward and able to retake which made such a short course easier and more capable to pass.

What could the instructor change about the course that would help you learn?

Comments

Nothing—it was an excellent course.

Nothing!

I wouldn't recommend Dr. Chen changing anything about this course. I have enjoyed it and I have found the material easy to learn because of the way he has it set up.

Thank you for the time and energy you expended in setting up an excellent course, Dr. Chen!

Great professor. My favorite professor. Really cares about his students and the coursework.

Dr. Chen is an amazing instructor. I have taken courses under him before and I would take another given the chance.
